DENIAL BY TEDDY ABOUT TAFT MEET

GRISCOM ARRANGED MEETING

Roosevelt Has Established Headquarters at Saratoga—Aftermath of the New Haven Confab Discussed—Statement.

New York, Sept. 20.—Theodore Roosevelt denied today that he had gone to New Haven, Conn., yesterday, to seek the help of President Taft in the New York State fight and that the President had refused his request.

It was pointed out to Col. Roosevelt that the impression had been given that it was he who sought an interview with the President for the purpose of obtaining the latter's aid and that Mr. Taft had let him know that he would add nothing to what he had done in support of the Roosevelt-Hughes element in its fight for direct nominations. Col. Roosevelt denied this emphatically and said that Lloyd C. Griscom, president of the New York County Republican Committee, had arranged the interviews between the President and himself.

Mr. Griscom confirmed Mr. Roosevelt in this. Col. Roosevelt gave out this statement regarding the interview:

"Without any suggestion from me, Mr. Griscom asked me if I would be willing to meet the President, and I said that of course I would. He had at first mentioned New York as the place of meeting, but wired me at Syracuse on Saturday that it would be New Haven and thither I went accordingly.

"I sought no help from the President and made no request of the President directly or indirectly, and had no request to make. Our interview was most cordial and pleasant and without any question or request from me, the President stated to me that he hoped we would win at Saratoga and that he had so informed Mr. Griscom, his remarks being in substance those attributed to him in the dispatches from the correspondents from the Presidential train.

"Our meeting was enjoyable in every way and I was glad I went."

Just before Col. Roosevelt started to Oyster Bay late this afternoon, he and Mr. Griscom talked for some time and later Mr. Griscom issued this statement:

"I suggested to Mr. Roosevelt that he meet and talk with the President. Mr. Roosevelt said that he would be delighted to do so. There was no mention made by either of us of any purpose in the meeting. Mr. Roosevelt asked nothing of the President.

"The President volunteered to me that he was glad to reiterate his views expressed in his letter to me of August 20th, regarding the situation of the Republican party in New York and stateed to me substantially what has appeared in the newspapers as telegraphed from the Presidential train. The meeting was cordial in every respect."

Col. Roosevelt repeated that his meeting with the President had been very pleasant and that President Taft had been entirely cordial in manner. Mr. Griscom was emphatic in saying that Col. Roosevelt had nothing to do with the arrangements for the interview and had not suggested it.

Col. Roosevelt has established headquarters at Saratoga. He said today that C. V. Collins, State superintendent of prisons, who, he has announced, will be his right hand man, has engaged quarters there. The colonel will leave New York for Saratoga at 12:45 P. M. on Monday.

There were a number of visitors to his office today with whom he talked politics, but the colonel had nothing to say on the New York State situation.

It was learned that the fight of the Roosevelt forces at Saratoga is to be an open one and that no candidate has been agreed upon for Governor or any other office. It is expected the Roosevelt men will go to Saratoga without a slate and that there will be no indication which one of the dozen or more men who have been mentioned prominently for the gubernatorial nomination will receive their support. There is known to exist, however, a feeling that an up-State man should be chosen if it is possible to agree upon one.

FARMER SLAIN FROM AMBUSH.

Man, Pardoned by Patterson, is Accused of the Murder.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 19.—H. St. Gill, a prominent farmer, was shot from ambush and instantly killed yesterday morning after having his horse shot from under him at Silver Point, Putnam county.

Gill received two loads from a shotgun. He lived long enough to swear that McConnell Moss had killed him.

Some two years ago Gill, who was and officer, killed Moss' brother within 50 yards of yesterday's tragedy.

Moss has served two years in the penitentiary for killing his cousin, Frank Mitchell. He was pardoned about two months ago by Gov. Patterson.

REPUBLICANS FOR COOLEY

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20.—R. A. P. Cooley, of Nashville, N. C., independent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Congressional district against Congressman E. W. Pou, received the endorsement of the Republican Congressional convention here today, this action being taken instead of putting a straight Republican in the field.

The convention elected J. W. Harden, of Raleigh, chairman of the District Executive Committee, and named J A. Matthews, of Nash county; H. B. Pearce, Johnston; T. T. Hester, Vance; W. H. Yarborough, Franklin; W. J. Andrews, Wake and J. C. Cregson, of Franklin county, as district committeemen. The executive committee is directed to further the interest of Independent Candidate Cooley in every way possible and work for him as the Republican candidate for Congress.

J. C. Stancil, of Johnston, district chairman, called the convention to order and W. J. Andrews was made permanent chairman and W. G. Briggs, permanent secretary of the convention, which went into a caucus for an hour before making the formal endorsement of Mr. Cooley in the open convention. The caucus is said to have been united in the plan to endorse the Independent Democrat and there was not a dissenting vote in the convention.

That Major B. F. Dixon, State Auditor, is out of immediate danger from an attack of angina pectoris which he suffered yesterday, is the statement made today by attending physicians. He suffered considerably during the early part of last night having taken additional injection of morphine to relieve him. However, he is comfortable and bright today with indications that he is improving steadily.

Official canvass of the returns from the Sixth Congressional District of the Democratic primary held under the auspices of the State Democratic Executive Committee to settle the contest between Congressman Godwin and O. L. Clark, claiming to have been nominated in separate warring party convention at Wilmington, shows Godwin's majority to be 4,502 over Clark.

BRYAN BOLTS TICKET.

Refuses Support for Governor on Account of Liquor Issue.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 20.—In a statement in which he declares that the crusade, which he feels impelled to wage against the liquor interests of the State and Nation overshadows a personal and political friendship of 20 years, William J. Bryan this evening announced he had bolted the head of the Democratic State ticket in Nebraska and would not support James C. Dahlman for governor.

Mr. Bryan says he regrets that he is compelled to take the stand he does—his first departure from political regularity—but says he feels it his duty to do so because of the position taken by the Democratic nominee on the liquor question. The statement does not indicate that Mr. Bryan will support the candidate of any other party, but announces that he is a pronounced advocate of county option and the early saloon closing law, both of which he insists are menaced by Mr. Dahlman's candidacy.

After declaring that it would afford him great pleasure to speak for Dahlman if he could endorse the policy for which the latter stands, Mr. Bryan says Dahlman "has chosen to make the liquor question the paramount issue and makes his appeal on that issue." Continuing, Mr. Bryan says:

"Possibly it is just as well to have the issue clearly presented, so that it may be settled this year instead of two years hence. Troublesome as the question is now, it would be even more embarrassing if presented in 1912, when a Presidential election is on hand. If Mr. Dahlman is elected, it will be a declaration by the voters of the State against county option and against the 8 o'clock closing law. If he is defeated, it will be a declaration in favor of county option and in favor of the 8 o'clock closing law. In other words, the voters now have an opportunity to decide whether the State shall go backward or forward on the liquor question. To present arguments in favor of going backward would not only contradict what I have already said on the subject, but would embarrass me in the fight that I expect to make hereafter to save our party from the odium of being the representative of the liquor interests."

GALLAGHER TRIAL DEFERRED.

Gaynor's Assailant Will Not be Indicted at the Present Time.

New York, Sept. 20.—James J. Gallagher, Mayor Gaynor's assailant, will not be indicted until positive medical assurance is given that the mayor has completely recovered from his wound, if the Hudson county grand jury follows the instructions given it by Judge Swayze in Jersey City today. The judge declared it would not be advisable to return an indictment charging assault with intent to kill at this time, unless surgeons should assure the grand jury there is no possibility of a fatal ending to the shooting.

"In my judgment," said the court, "proper caution requires that we do not act with haste."

ILLINOIS CENTRAL AFFAIRS PROBED

HEARING STILL IN PROGRESS

Official of Company Questioned Yesterday—Shipper's Committee Obtaining Information—Schemes Disclosed.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Alleged manipulation of a railroad's income to cover up earnings and to compound its income was inquired into today by attorneys for the Western shippers of officers of the Illinois Central Railroad before the Interstate Commerce Commission in the rate hearing now in progress. Opinions on the propriety of disposition of earnings were given by Vice President and General Manager W. L. Park.

Mr. Park had told the commission he thought a proper rate to be charged for freight transportation was one which rendered a fair return for service to the shipper and which, after paying as reasonable dividend on the capital stock, paid fixed charges and operating and maintenance expenses and would also give the company a yearly surplus of six or seven millions, "to make the investment attractive to people with money, and to give the company a credit."

"And what would you do with this surplus, just hold?" inquired Attorney John H. Atwood, of Kansas City, Mo., representing the general shippers' committee.

"No," was the reply. "I would use it for bettering the road. For instance, I would devote a part of it to new depots, etc."

"But" asked Mr. Atwood, "when that depot was built, you would consider it a part of the actual property of the company and a proper subject for additional capitalization, wouldn't you?"

"Of course," was the answer.

"Then when you later had capitalized, you would say you ought to be entitled to a reasonable dividend upon that capitalization?"

"Yes sir."

"Then the simple fact is, you think you ought to be entitled to charge shippers enough to bring in sufficient earnings that you can devote a part to new capitalization and then get a big return on it in the shape of dividends, do you? Is that your idea of what constitutes a 'fair tariff' for the shipper?" The witness did not answer.

Manager Parks introduced a new term in railroad nomenclature—"railroad intuition." He had been asked by Commissioner Clements on what he based his opinion that the present physical valuation of the road was far in excess of its $285,000,000 capitalization.

"Why, I haven't any exact data by which to determine the physical valuation," said Manager Parks. "I depend upon what I might call railroad intuition—yes, that's it, railroad intuition. You see a man can't do nothing for 35 years, but ride over railroads, compare property values and buy new lines, without gaining an intuitive value appreciation. I couldn't name any definite figure, but it is much higher than the capitalization."

Chief Engineer Baldwin commented on the effect of wage increase of labor. He said: "In ten years we have raised certain workmen's pay 25 cents a day, and as a result we are getting less return for our money. This is particularly true with the negro. The more money he gets, the less efficient he is from our standpoint. It is a safe rule to say that increased wages means less labor efficiency."

The Illinois Central announced at the close of the day's session that it had put in its case. It was understood that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul will appear before the commission tomorrow.

SHERMAN DEFEATS COL. ROOSEVELT

Up-State Primaries Held Throughout New York Yesterday.

STATEMENT FROM WM. BARNES

Real Contest Will be on Committee on Resolutions—Vice President Not Popular in His Own Election District—The Results.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 20.—A clear majority of 55 votes for the selection of Vice President Sherman as temporary chairman of the New York State Republican convention over Col. Roosevelt was claimed tonight by William Barnes, Jr., as a result of the up-State primaries today.

Mr. Barnes, who has been leading the fight of the "old guard," declared that the real contest at Saratoga will be in the committee on resolutions. This committee will consider the question of direct nominations. Mr. Barnes gave out this statement:

"The result of today's primaries ends the contest over the temporary chairmanship and gives Vice President Sherman a clear majority of 55 votes. Interest naturally centers in the personal element, but there are involved in this situation two principles of great importance to the Republican party. The first may be called orderly political management. Mr. Roosevelt was defeated in the State committee by a vote of 20 to 15 and then Mr. Sherman was unanimously chosen as the temporary presiding officer of the State convention. To question that determination on the floor of the State convention is equivalent to bolting a nomination. This is known as political welching and had Mr. Roosevelt defeated Mr. Sherman in the State committee that would have been the end of that controversy. Mr. Roosevelt has not acted as Mr. Sherman would have done in questioning the unanimous action of the committee. They are equal before the party. Mr. Roosevelt has no more superior rights as a man than any other m·

"Secondly, the real contest at Saratoga will be in the committee on resolutions. There the party creed for two years will be proclaimed. There must be determined whether the party is to be turned over to 'my policies' borrowed from Bryan, or to remain steadfast in the faith which has given solidarity and victory in the party. I have done what I could in the public press to warn Republicans of the Roosevelt danger and at the primaries to secure delegates who will not rush madly to the worship of false Gods. We have won."

Sherman at Home.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Vice President Sherman was defeated in his own election district, his own ward and his own assembly district, by the progressive Republicans at the primaries in Utica today, though he carried the city by gaining delegates in a scant majority of the wards.

Of the three assembly districts in Oneida county, Vice President Sherman won the first, lost the second by an overwhelming vote and will lose the third, if the city of Rome fails to support him. Insurgents claim a victory.

LEWIS RUNS AGAINST WILSON

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 20.—Vivian M. Lewis was nominated for Governor on the first ballot at today's Republican State convention. For a while there were rumors that he would refuse to be a candidate because of a conflict over the platform.

Mr. Lewis received nearly 700 votes as against 300 votes that were cast for the three other aspirants for the nomination. These three aspirants were President Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, of the State Senate; Prosecutor Pierre P. Garven, of Hudson county, and former Assemblyman William P. Martin, the latter the candidate of the progressives. As soon as the balloting showed that Mr. Lewis was nominated delegates began to change their votes and amid enthusiasm the nomination was made unanimous.

The convention was notable principally for the fight over the platform which was not settled until the convention had ratified the platform as agreed upon by the convention's committee on resolutions.

A sub-committee of the State committee last night prepared a draft of a platform in which rate making power was not endorsed. Mr. Lewis objected to this and stood out for a specific declaration for rate making power. Notwithstanding this the State committee this morning agreed upon the platform substantially as drafted last night by the sub-committee consisting of United States Senator Kean, Congressman John B. Gardner and State Senator Edward W. Wakelee, all pronounced stand-patters.

The fight was then carried into the convention's committee on resolutions and Mr. Lewis was on that committee, reinforced by George L. Record, the leader of the New Idea Republicans, won out and put into the platform rate making authority in which power is specifically conferred upon the public utilities commission.

The fight over the rate making power was a vigorous and at times a bitter one. The "stand-patters", stood out unbendingly for a declaration which would not confer rate making power, but Mr. Lewis was as equally firm and to the surprise of the stand-patters, won out in the committee on resolutions by a vote of 10 to 6.

After the nomination had been made Mr. Lewis made a speech in which he expressed himself clearly on different issues of the campaign.

The platform endorses warmly the administration of President Taft, declared that the last Congress passed more beneficial laws than other Congresses; endorses the administration of Governor Fort, declared specifically for rate-making power to be given to the present public utility commission. The platform also declared for a more effective employers' liability law and for such change in the election and primary laws as will make the voters choice easy of expression and sure of execution.

TAFT REACHES CINCINNATI.

President Visiting at Brother's Home. Crowds Greeted His Train.

Cincinnati, Sept. 20.—President Taft reached Cincinnati late today and will remain here until Saturday next when he goes to Washington. The President is a guest at the home of his brother, C. P. Taft, in Pike street. Mr. Taft is in Europe at this time with his family. Aside from a busy day tomorrow at the Ohio Valley Exposition, the President has made no engagements in Cincinnati, and proposes to have a quiet informal time while here renewing old acquaintances. He will make an address tomorrow afternoon in Music Hall on the subject of waterway improvements. In the evening he will be the guest of the exposition directors at dinner and attend a local production of grand opera in the evening. The President will golf on Thursday and Friday over the local links.

On the way to Cincinnati today crowds greeted the President at nearly all of the stations beween here and Cleveland. He appeared on the platform several times, but made no speeches.

The President declined today to comment in any way upon the outcome of the conference which Col. Theodore Roosevelt at New Haven on yesterday. A large part of this conference, it has developed, was participated in by the President and Mr. Roosevelt alone.

ITALIANS SWUNG FROM TREE LIMB

DISCOVERED BY POLICEMAN

Were Conspicuous in Cigar Makers Strike and Were Taken From Deputy Sheriffs—Charged With Shooting Bookkeeper.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 20.—While being taken to the county jail tonight at 9 o'clock Castengo Ficcarrotta and Angela Albano, prominent Italians, who made themselves conspicuous in the cigar strike here, were taken from deputy sheriffs at Howard and Grand Central Avenues, hurried to some woods nearby and hanged from a tree.

Both men were arrested at 6 o'clock in the evening by a deputy sheriff charged with being accessories to the shooting of J. F. Easterling, bookkeeper of Bustillo Brothers & Diaz, several days ago. They were locked up in the West Tampa barracks but were taken out, placed in a hack and started toward the county jail in Tampa. They were accompanied by Deputy Sheriffs Evans and Bryan.

At Howard and Grand Central Avenues a squad of between 50 and 75 armed men halted the party. The officers were told to get out and the driver ordered to turn around. The prisoners, handcuffed to each other, were then ordered to alight.

As the two prisoners were marched off the officers hurried to the nearest telephone and sent a message to police headquarters.

When Police Chief Woodward arrived at the scene he was greeted with the gruesome sight of two bodies swinging in the moonlight. The two deputy sheriffs stated that they believed the lynching party was composed of Italians and Cubans.

Following the discovery of the bodies wild excitement reigned here. At midnight a crowd estimated at 2,000 persons had gathered and the real tension of feeling, resultant from th strike now on her, was evident.

Ficcarrotto and Albano, it is said, have been conspicuous lately in the labor troubles between the manufacturers and cigar makers. Eight months ago Ficcarrotto was acquitted of murdering his uncle, G. Ficcarrotta, a prominent wholesale dealer of West Tampa.

The police do not believe the execution of the two Italians has any bearing on the local strike situation, alleging that it is rather the result of recent fueds between certain elements of the local Italian colony. Shortly after midnight the bodies were brought to the city and a coroner's jury was impannelled to hold an inquest.

PANIC BY FLAMES.

Five Are Injured, Two Perhaps Fatally, in Trying for Safety.

New York, Sept. 19.—Five persons were injured, two perhaps fatally, in a panic which attended an early morning fire in a down-town tenement district on the West Side today. Two of the injured are women. All were hurt by jumping from windows.

The fire was in a three-story frame house. It started on the ground floor and spread rapidly, cutting off the escape of those asleep on the upper floors. The two women jumped from a second story window into the arms of policemen and were not badly hurt.

FIRST COUNT OF VOTES CONTEST IS MERRILY ON

Hundreds of Nominations and Many Are Now Actively at Work in Star's Great Popularity Race—Interest Will Increase as the Balloting Progresses—Districts and the Prizes.

The great popularity contest which was inaugurated by the Morning Star has really but started, and with the announcement of names which appears today, the race is declared on and it is now "to the swift" and the battle to the strong.

Beginning with today, the contest will grow more spirited every day, interest will become more intense, and before long the excitement will be at fever heat. Already in some of the counties outside New Hanover, the contest is overshadowing the political campaign and the Congressional race.

It is not often that a young lady has the opportunity to secure $500 in cash, two free trips to Cuba, a handsome pony, harness and buggy, and many other valuable premiums, by just a little effort on her part.

Now that the names have been published, it would be well to enter your own name or that of a friend at once for, as has been preached, an early start is half the battle.

If there is any contestant, or a friend, who does not thoroughly understand the conditions of the contest, it would be well for them to call up 'phone 190, write the contest manager of the Morning Star, or call personally at the office and receive full particulars.

Below will be found a most interesting list of contestants among whom are some of North Carolina's most popular young ladies, whose friends will work industriously in their behalf.

More surprise and interest has been shown in the Star's great contest thus far than in any proposition of its kind in the State.

The Star promises its readers one of the most interesting circulation campaigns ever inaugurated on any newspaper in the United States, and that's "going some."

Following is the list of contestants and the amount of votes each one has up to the last count:

GALVESTON'S COTTON RECORD.

Galveston, Texas, Sept. 20.—A new cotton record was made today when receipts of cotton were 40,677, the largest for one day in September in the history of the port. The nearest approach to this record was made on September 27th, 1904, when one day's receipts were 40,184 bales.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 20.—Five passengers were slightly hurt and two locomotives were badly damaged when the White Mountain Express, running over the Boston & Maine tracks from Bretton Woods, N. H., for Boston, crashed into a switching engine at the extreme north end of the station here this afternoon. The tracks were blocked for some time.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Capt. E. E. Hayden has been detached from duty at the naval observatory in this city and ordered to duty as commandant of the naval station at Key West, Fla. He will relieve Commodore W. H. Beehler, retired, who is ordered to his home.

WOULD-BE SLAYER ARRESTED

Negro Who Fired Upon Chief of Police Stallings Captured at Henderson. Officer Still in Precarious Condition at Richmond.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 20.—Norman Lewis, the negro who fired upon Chief of Police Stallings on Sunday night at Spring Hope and gave him a wound in his chest that will prove fatal, so physicians believe, was taken in Henderson this morning after having been hunted by a posse of a hundred men for two nights and a day.

Bloodhounds were used on the negro's trail and the upper end of Nash county and a goodly part of Franklin was scoured in an effort to find the negro. The negro was taken shortly after 8 o'clock this morning as he was attempting to board an outgoing freight from Henderson. The negro had about $45 in money on his person at the time of his capture. A telephone message received shortly after noon states that the negro has confessed that he is the person wanted, but he claims that it was his wife who fired upon the officer. His wife is in Spring Hope and will no doubt be detained.

Sheriff Johnson, of Nash county, and a deputy from Franklin left immediately for Henderson upon learning that the negro had been taken there, and it is understood that it is their intention to return to Franklinton with him, that he may be identified. These were their plans upon learning of the capture, but at that time the negro emphatically denied that he was the person wanted. However, since he has confessed the matter of identity may not be found necessary and it may cause a change of plans with the officer. Several Spring Hope people who might identify the negro were asked to be at Franklinton this afternoon to identify the man when he was brought there. Feeling is running high in Spring Hope and there is little doubt that the negro will be brought to Nash county for some little time yet. It is thought that if the wound of the officer proves fatal, as it is believed by physicians that it will, it will take heroic work in order to prevent violence if the negro is in this section.

A telegram at 11 o'clock this morning from the bedside of Chief of Police Stallings, who is at Johnson-Willis Hospital at Richmond, where he was taken yesterday, states that he is in a most serious condition and that the laceration of his left lung is causing him considerable trouble in breathing and that he continues to spit blood. Little hope is held out for his recovery and the hospital physicians do not believe that he can stand the operation. Two Spring Hope physicians and an older son of the wounded officer are with him.

Nashville, N. C., Sept. 20.—Norman Lewis, the negro who shot and perhaps fatally wounded Chief of Police Stallings, of Spring Hope, Sunday night, was captured at Henderson early this morning. Sheriff Kearney, of Franklin county, went for him and Mayor Bergeron, of Spring Hope, and Sheriff Johnston, of Nash, went to Louisburg to meet him. Sheriff Johnston found the feeling intense at Louisburg and wired Kearney to take the prisoner to Raleigh for safe keeping. The last report from Richmond is that Chief Stallings is in a critical condition with the odds of recovery against him.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 20.—Surgeons attending Chief of Police J. M. Stallings, of Spring Hope, N. C., who was brought here last night for treatment, are afraid to operate because of his weakened condition and hold out little hope of saying the officer's life.

Carried to Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20.—Norman Lewis, charged with shooting Chief of Police Stallings at Spring Hope Sunday night, was brought to Raleigh and jailed for safe keeping until the feeling in Nash has subsided.

THE SUIT AGAINST GROCERS.

Taking of Testimony in Government Action to Begin Immediately.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Taking of testimony in the government's suit against the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association is to begin immediately. Some witnesses will be heard before a master in the District of Columbia and the depositions of others will be taken in the Southern cities where the 18 defendants do business.

The government's petition in equity for the dissolution of the association is now before the United States Circuit Court of the Northern District of Alabama. It alleges that the defendants have combined to raise prices to wholesalers, to prevent manufacturers and producers from selling direct to retailers and consumers and that they have blacklisted the merchants who refused to accede to their terms A system of rebates to wholesalers who entered the conspiracy is alleged to have covered 15 States and Territories, mostly in the South.

The suit is under the direction of W. S. Kenyon, assistant to the Attorney General in charge of trust prosecutions. Orla T. Harrison, a special assistant to the attorney general, will conduct it. Mr. Kenyon returned from Chicago today where he has been directing the government's suit against the so-called beef trust.

PATIENT KILLS DOCTOR.

Shot Him to Death at Austell, Ga. Then Turned Weapon on Himself.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 20.—Armed with a revolver, a pair of brass knucks and an open knife and awaiting his turn in the office of Dr. J. R. Sewell, W. M. Cox, aged 36, of Austell, Ga., shortly after noon today shot and instantly killed the physician. Cox then turned the pistol on himself and pulled the trigger. He is now at the Grady Hospital with a fractured skull.

Cox came here from his home in Austell this morning for the purpose, it is said, of visiting Dr. Sewell, whose patient he had been for several weeks.

It is understood that Cox has been brooding because of fancied wrongs at the hands of the physician.

Dr. Sewell, who was 46 years of age, is survived by a widow and six children. Cox is unmarried. A coroner's jury has ordered Cox held for investigation, pending his recovery.

AFFAIRS IN COLUMBUS COUNTY

Government Expert Advising as to Road Improvement—Democratic Outlook Good—Contest is Popular—Crops.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Sept. 20.—Mr. Spoon, a government good roads expert, was in Whiteville last week to advise Mayor Davis about permanent improvements on our streets. He said he thought macadam the most expensive and undesirable paving the town could put down; that macadam would only last ten years, when it must be resurfaced at a cost of 50 per cent. of the original price. Mr. Spoon recommended that the town use 60 per cent. of Sumter, S. C., rock, and surface with the Beech Island gravel, from Augusta, Ga. Mayor Davis and Capt. Granger, of our county roads, leave in a few days for these two points to investigate cost of material, when the work of permanently improving our streets will begin.

Mr. J. R. Williamson, in speaking of the candidacy of Mr. Iredell Meares, Republican candidate for Congress, remarked that Mr. Godwin and the Democratic party need have no uneasiness on that score; that the vote received by Mr. Godwin in the recent primary exceedd the combined Clark and Republican vote, and even did Mr. Meares get both he would still not win.

The Republicans of this township held a meeting yesterday in the court house to select delegates to their county convention. There was a very small attendance.

We understand that work on Mr. R. E. L. Brown's handsome home at Chadbourn has been temporarily suspended, until Mr. Brown can return to look after same. This will be one of the handsomest residences in Eastern Carolina when completed. Latest news of Mr. Lee Brown is that he continues to improve.

The Wilmington Star's contest is creating far more interest in this county than the Congressional primary. A number of persons are collecting coupons and soliciting subscribers, and when the morning mail opens subscribers of the Star are besieged for the coupons in their papers. That contest will largely swell the Star's already fine subscription list in Columbus county.

An unusual amount of wild geese is reported this season, and the woods and fields are full of birds, squirrels and other game. A great many wild turkeys are reported, as also deer. For several years the deer have had no disease to kill them off, and when the game season opens the club will have fine sport. Many land-owners in this county are posting their property against hunters and fishermen. Every season parties of hunters from the North and other sections come here and hunt. Besides idle negroes with guns are shooting every bird they find. Land-owners are determined to put a stop to these hunters.

Farmers in Whiteville this week report the cotton crop as very spotted. In some sections of our county it is fine, while in others it cannot make more than half an average yield. The general impression is that Columbus county will make about two-thirds of a cotton crop on an average.

The six-year-old child of Mr. Spivey, a merchant here, died Sunday from fever and was yesterday interred in the Whiteville cemetery. He was a bright little boy, and the parents have the sympathy of every one.

The Charlotte-Wilmington highway is creating great interest in this county and there is a friendly rivalry between Boardman and Evergreen and Fair Bluff to bring it by their respective towns. Columbus county is ready to do its part when the time comes. A good roads movement is sweeping over our county, and invokes the greatest enthusiasm. Mr. Clyde Council, of Wananish, is head of the movement in Columbus, and he is putting in some telling work.

Some farmers were in town the other day discussing the relative profit in growing cotton and tobacco, and the unanimous opinion was that there is more money in 8 cents tobacco than in 15 cents cotton. They compared profits this year, and after paying all warehouse charges showed that their tobacco crop brought them in from $90 to $110 per acre, although the weed was very light this season. The prospect is that the tobacco acreage will be largely increased next year in Columbus. Mr. A. C. Oliver remarked that he planted his cotton before he touched the tobacco, and he has now made and sold the latter crop, but has the cotton yet to gather.

STATE GEOLOGIIST BUSY.

Will Make Several Addresses in and Out of the State.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 20.—The North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey will be represented by Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist, at the third annual National Good Roads Convention at St. Louis, Mo., September 28th to 30th. The State Geologist will make addresses on "Convict Labor in Public Road Construction," and on "The Crest of the Blue Ridge Highway."

The State Geologist has been invited to make an address in Atlanta, Ga., October 8th, before the Southern Commercial Congress; the subject of his address will be "The Relation of Good Roads to the Industrial Advancement of the South."

On Monday, October 3rd, the State Geologist will address a meeting of Union county citizens at Monroe on road questions.

The Lash of a Fiend

would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Robert R. Bellamy.

DEATHS AT ROCKY MOUNT.

Mrs. Nellie Proctor and Mrs. W. A. Trevathan Passed Away.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 20.—After having been in feeble health for the past six or eight months Mrs. Nellie proctor died yesterday afternoon at her home in Edgecombe county at the ripe old age of 78 years. Mrs. Proctor is the mother of Mr. O. B. Proctor, a prominent farmer of Edgecombe, Miss Lena Edwards, of near Tarboro, and Mrs. E. F. Arrington, of this city. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home in Edgecombe county and was well attended by a number of friends and acquaintances in that section.

Mrs. Willie A. Trevathan died suddenly yesterday afternoon at her home on the Falls road after having been in bad health for several months, though she appeared to be improving gradually, and on yesterday morning ate a hearty breakfast. Yesterday afternoon she complained of feeling bad, and she laid down and in a few moments, before those at her bedside realized her serious condition, she was dead.

Wednesday, September 21, 1910.

Now comes the Asheville Gazette-News telling us that the moonshiners in Cherokee county, North Carolina, have discovered that they can make "very effective whiskey" from cotton seed. The editor talks like he knows cotton seed liquor will hit the right spot.

President Taft is trying to "stay in" on standpatism plastered over with promises of tariff revision, while Ex-President Roosevelt is trying to "get in" with his latest discovery of "New Nationalism," which he thinks will draw the attention of the people away from the tariff. The voters are onto the game.

It is now announced that a malady known as "flatfoot" is to take the place of the appendicitis fad, and that it is astonishing how many people are suffering from it. Of course, we are worried because people are subject to flatfoot but we are more annoyed by those who are light fingered.

"Should we boycott meat?" inquires a contemporary. No use to do that, for breakfast strips at 30 cents a pound and other meats which sell for more than they are worth have boycotted the average man on their own hook. The breakfast strip is of plebian origin but it has entirely gotten out of its class.

Secretary of War Dickinson, who is on his campaign vacation, is being wined and dined by the Chinese at Peking. The Secretary is a Democrat holding a Cabinet portfolio at the hands of a Republican President, and his absence separtes him from the responsibility of endorsing standpatism or new nationalism. Dickinson knows when it is a good time to prove an alibi.

In the South Carolina primary election, the Hon. Cole L. Blease was nominated for Governor in spite of the opposition of every newspaper in the State, with the exception of one weekly newspaper. The papers predicted overwhelming defeat for Blease. The Spartanburg Journal is a cheerful loser, and lets it all pass with this remark: "We do not care anything about Col. Blease being elected governor. What we do hate is the damage to our reputation as a prophet."

The State Democratic Convention of Colorado charges that United States Senator Guggenheim "buncoes the people" and declares: "Simon Guggenheim has voted to rob the people in order to enrich the corporations and trusts with which he is allied." It is a notorious fact that Guggenheim bought his seat in the Senate, yet Roosevelt was his guest while he was in Colorado recently. Afterwards Roosevelt refused to eat with Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, who bought his seat cheaper than Guggenheim. The Rough Rider dines with one and snubs the other.

President Taft withheld patronage from insurgent Senators and Congressmen, hoping to conquer them by keeping them away from the pie counter. It drove them further away from him and now that he has realized their power he is endeavoring to bait them back by offering to let them have their own way about patronage in their States. The trouble with Republican administrations and Republicans generally is that they lay too much stress on the pie counter. Like President Taft said about the Republicans in North Carolina, it would be a good thing for him if he didn't have any patronage to make use of in attempting to control self respecting Senators and Congressmen.

TAXED FOR THE GUGGENHEIMS.

The Guggenheims control the Smelter Trust and it was recently shown that United States Senator Simon Guggenheim, of Colorado, is largely interested in twenty trusts and corporations which reap large benefits from the Republican tariff which was not revised downward at the last session of Congress. Of course, Senator Guggenheim is a Republican and when he was elected to the Senate by the Colorado Legislature all readers will remember the scandal about his flagrant purchase of his seat in the United States Senate. In the Senate, as a matter of course, he voted for special interests, and instead of representing the people he voted to tax the people for the benefit of twenty or more industries in which he was individually concerned. This Guggenheim is the man with whom Roosevelt hobnobbed during his Western tour, later to come by way of Chicago and snub Senator Lorimer who is charged with having bought his seat but who is not yet under conviction.

The New York World is pointing out in an emphatic manner how millionaires represent themselves in the United States Senate and vote tariff protection and benefits for themselves and the allied interests who are burdening the people. On May 5th, 1909, during the tariff debates, the World quotes this as having been said by Senator Guggenheim:

"If it were not for the duty the foreign lead which could compete with us in this country would come from the mines of Spain, where it is mined on a cheap basis. It is therefore very important to see that a duty is imposed on white lead to keep out the cheap Spanish lead and also the Australian lead, which would come into competition with our lead."

It might appear to a man susceptible of the proprieties that it would be out of place to openly take a hand in going through the pockets of the people for his own benefit, but not so with Gugenheim. In order to show that Guggenheim voted himself tariff benefits and then takes advantage of American consumers, the World calls attention to the fact that American white lead, a product of the Guggenheim Lead Trust, is now quoted for delivery on the dock at Hamburg, Germany, at three and a half cents a pound while the same Guggenheim product is sold in the United States for six cents a pound. European buyers get their Guggenheim white lead at nearly one half less than American consumers have to pay, although it is American consumers who are taxed for the benefit of just such predatory individuals as the Guggenheims.

Attention is also called to the fact that zinc white, another Gugenheim product, is laid down on the dock at Hamburg for four and one-third cents a pound while American consumers of zinc white have to pay five and three-quarters cents a pound. Even after the high German tariff is paid by the Guggenheims before they can land their zinc white at Hamburg, it sells cheaper abroad than at home, as shown by the World.

The World emphasizes the fact that "every man who has a house to paint is paying the excessive tariff levied at the instance of Senator Guggenheim in the interest of the Guggenheim pocket, while the Guggenheim products flood the foreign markets at lower prices." How long will the American people submit to a Republican policy which not only enables the Guggenheims but other favored classes to impose upon them in such an outrageous manner? Every vote cast for a Republican Congressman is consent on the part of the robbed to be robbed some more. There is no question about that.

This is a consumers' fight. Don't take any hook baited with side-issues. The side-issue is bait for suckers. You are no sucker, are you?

The lobbyist with his pockets full of greenbacks must go. The Congressman and the legislator must be sure not to call back the lobbyist.

Says the Greensboro News (Rep.): "Goose pie is a favorite Democratic dish." Buddy, quit your dish of crow, come on over and eat goose pie. It is "different."

"Down with the demagogue" shouts Ex-Vice President Fairbanks, "Down with the boss" yells Ex-President Roosevelt. That has been the Democratic yell for a quarter of a century. Start something new.

Roosevelt is denouncing newspapers for expressing opinions about him that are disagreeable to him. The papers don't seem to agree with Col. Roosevelt even when he disagrees with them.

Roosevelt wants his opponents to come out in the open and fight his "New Nationalism." He should be careful how he invites people to jump on something that might make a noise like a bag of wind.

Senator Lodge does not seem to be in the limelight much. It was the Massachusetts Senator who said "the ultimate consumer is a myth." Probably Lodge has looked over the returns from Maine and is quietly revising his opinion of the ultimate consumer.

PRODUCE MORE FOR LESS.

The farmers' institutes and demonstration farms under the auspices of the State Agricultural Department are doing a great work in North Carolina. Farmers everywhere have been aroused in behalf of better farming, more systematic farm work and greater production on fewer acres at less cost. About three-fourths of the counties in North Carolina have demonstration farms and the result is of most tremendous importance.

The live farmers of Robeson appreciate the progressive and substantial results in a demonstration farm and are to be commended for their efforts towards the demonstration of improved and practical farming in their county. Owing to the fact that the State could not help the Robeson farmers in establishing a demonstration farm at this time, the Robeson farmers are making private subscriptions to a fund that will be supplemented by the United States Department of Agriculture in securing demonstration work in their midst. Robeson county is one of the finest agricultural sections in the South and her farmers are manifesting an enterprising spirit that means a big development in that splendid section of eastern North Carolina.

Speaking about demonstration work, the Southern Pines Tourists notes what is being done in Moore county in the way of producing more corn to the acre than heretofore. The Tourist calls attention to the fact that "ten years ago the Moore county farmer who was getting anywhere from 8 to 12 bushels to the acre was fairly well satisfied, while the man who managed to coax 15 or 20 bushels from a single acre thought he had done a big thing and no one disputed him." That kind of farming is a thing of the past in North Carolina, or at any rate is rapidly passing. The Tourist notes the fact that corn growing near Southern Pines has reached a stage that this Fall will demonstrate that from 35 to 40 bushels per acre will be grown by a farmer who is rather ashamed than boastful of what he considers a poor yield.

The Tourist explains why the corn growers are now getting double the crop from one acre than was grown by the old method. It is explained that deep plowing, scientific fertilization and shallow but frequent cultivation is doing the work. The Tourist states that demonstration work in Moore county is being done on 85 widely scattered acres under direction of the farm demonstrator. By demonstrating the work in different sections a greater number of farmers can observe the methods of progressive farming, with the result that sooner or later the system of farming in Moore county will be entirely revolutionized. The demonstration on 85 acres, it is estimated, has increased production from 15 bushels to 35 bushels per acre, showing a money increase in profit of $2,380. The price of corn is figured at 80 cents a bushel. Moore county contributes $300 to the demonstrator's salary, and if that isn't a great investment what is?

CLINCHING THE FACT.

There is nothing like getting informed on the question of the tarm and its imposition upon consumers. The Republican papers in North Carolina are helping out in this matter by asking questions and making observations intended to benefit standpattery, but the answers to which demonstrates how far they are off upon this vital subject. A few days ago the Winston Republican said:

"The Department of Commerce and Labor, at Washington, states that the increase in the cost of living in other countries, especially in France, has increased in the last ten years as much as in this country. Maybe the American tariff is affecting those countries, as the Democrats claim for this Nation."

The Star copied the above remarks of its Republican contemporary of Winston-Salem and reminded it that France was itself a protection country and necessarily high prices would prevail there as well as in this country or any other country that maintains a protective tariff which fences off the home market and permits it to be exploited by trusts without competition from abroad. We suggested that prices be compared with those in England where the tariff affects production and prices less. The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot takes up this question, and referring to the Winston Republican's paragraph observes:

"This lacks both point and wit. The Republican knows, or ought to know, that both France and Germany are high tariff countries; and it is the tariff which is chiefly responsible for the increased cost of living in France and Germany, as it is the tariff which has enhanced and is still enhancing the prices of the necessaries of life in the United States. No clearer or more conclusive evidence of the direct effect of impost duties on the cost of living could be furnished than the fact that in proportion as the several Nations of the world so shackle trade, in that proportion have the prices of the necessaries of life within their respective borders advanced."

The Sphynx, it strikes us, would nod assent and acknowledge that this ought to clinch the statement so far as the interests of consumers are concerned. We can conceive how a man who wants to get an office on the specious plea of "protection for American industries," and how a captain of industry who gets the benefit of protection, can advocate high tariff duties, but just why a consumer wants to tax himself and his family for the benefit of somebody else is beyond our comprehension.

A contemporary says "Ballinger still sticks to his job." Nevertheless, Ballinger's whitewash will not stick to him.

What Ex-President Roosevelt has been saying during his Western tour is equivalent to offering a motion to make it unanimous.

The "immunity bath" was discovered during the Roosevelt administration. The discovery was then utilized for all it was worth, but people seem to have forgotten it.

The prohibitionist candidate for Governor in South Carolina was defeated in the primary election. There never was anything real dry about a South Carolina primary.

Quoth the Jacksonville Times-Union Philosopher: "The breath of genius is often too heavy for flight." Nevertheless, it would indicate that the genius is somewhat flighty.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The next Congress may reduce "Uncle Joe" from Speaker to squeaker.—Baltimore Sun.

The main reason advanced by the railroads for higher rates so far seems to be that they need the money.—Atlanta Journal.

Abolishing the referee system may help, but a change in the manner of distributing patronage is not going to build up a party. Durham Herald.

No wonder Secretary Ballinger is bitter. How would you like for somebody to spill your whitewash after you had spent half a year in compounding it?—Dallas News.

It might be suggested to the interstate Commerce Commission that The Outlook is shipping Mr. Roosevelt to different parts of the country in restraint of trade.—Providence Tribune.

Mr. Roosevelt is expanding his new nationalism so as to cover everything that anybody wants and take in everybody except Lorimer.—Austin Statesman. When it comes to "taking in" people the colonel is playing his long suit.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

If a tariff is crooked, it is a moral issue, according to the Colonel. The Payne-Aldrich cotton, wool and metals schedules, having been made by the interests, are crooked ,and therefore present a moral issue for the consideration of the voters.—Rochester Herald.

The iron is hot, and the time to strike is now. Knowing in their hearts that the House of Representatives is lost to them, the Republicans are now quaking at the blows of the battering ram on the doors of the last Republican stronghold—the United States Senate. That barrier also is bound to give way.—Buffalo Times.

The people have grown too intelligent for the Democratic papers to hope to change votes by trying to ram glaring falsehoods down their throats. —Greensboro News. But the news from Maine would indicate that the people are eagerly swallowing and healthily digesting the truths that Democratic orators and papers are dispensing.—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

The Winston-Salem Southbound railway has encountered a bed of quicksand near Lexington from which drain pipes are now drawing 160 gallons of water per minute without any signs of exhausting the supply. The promoters of the enterprise have already demonstrated that they possess all the sand required, and this unexpected addition to their stock is a little superfluous.—Charlotte Observer.

By drat, they are about to fix Roosevelt. All hands have read the riot act to him and told him if he wants a finger in the New York Republican convention he must agree to a full endorsement of the Taft administration. His friends, the insurgents, tell him this. What a pill? If he can't be the whole show he will not show at all. Ten to one he will not attend the convention at all.—Greensboro Record.

A British government inquiry as to the illiterate vote has brought out some facts and figures that may well afford "food for thought" to American optimists. Out of 5,770,000 votes thrown at the recent general election in England and Wales but 17,151 were cast by illiterates. The illiterate voters in Scotland wede as 2,044 to 660,000, in Ireland 22,000 to 220,000. Unfortunate Ireland is already coming in for lecturing on its educational shortcomings, but these admonitions will be accompanied by bad grace from some quarters. It may, for instance, be doubted if every state in the Union can show a very much better average of educated voting than Ireland exhibits. We often speak of ourselves as the most common-schooled people in the world, whereas there were in the United States in 1900, according to the census, 6,180,069 illiterates above 10 years of age, of whom 3,200,745 were whites. Of the illiterates 5,224,226 could neither read nor write. The native white illiterates numbered 1,468,348. In 11 States adult illiterates aggregated over 100,000 each, Georgia leading with 158,247. The truth is that we are not keeping abreast with some of the Old World which have made education a national function, like Germany, France and Great Britain. In Germany outside the Polish provinces illiteracy is all but unknown. The British voting figures speak for themselves.—Boston Transcript.

Not many weeks ago a meeting of negroes was held in Charlotte to organize to demand the ballot for all the negroes. About the same time the Washington papers printed that the Republican Congressional Committee would assist negroes in the close States who desired to vote. There is no doubt that in a quiet way in North Carolina the Butlerites will try to get as many negroes on the registration books this year as possible, and registrars should see to it that the list is rigidly held down to those who are clearly entitled under the law. The Republicans believe that more negroes are qualified to vote than were registered two years ago and Democrats may look to see the negroes coached in secret and urged to demand the ballot. In a communication to the News and Observer October 19th, 1906, Mr. T. T. Hicks, of Vance, the present Republican nominee for Chief Justice, referring to the negroes and voting, said: "Not over a hundred have registered since 1900, though a thousand might do so." How did the would-be Chief Justice learn that there were a thousand negroes in Vance county who might register. Who told him? Did he examine them? Did he try to teach them and prepare them to vote? In the last election, the Republicans polled 578 votes in Vance county. According to T. T. Hicks, only 100 negroes were registered. He thought in 1906 there were 900 more "who might register." If there were that many then, how many are there now? And is it the purpose of the Republicans to try to register these negroes?

Men who really believe in White Supremacy must be on their guard and see that no entering wedge is made to a return to the conditions that cursed the State in 1905-1909.—Raleigh News and Observer.

TWELVE CASES ON DOCKET

There Will be Little Doing in Superior Court Next Week if the Holly Case is Continued Until Next Term—Others.

There will be little doing the first week of New Hanover's double-term of Superior Court, which begins Monday, if the Holly case is continued, judging from the size and importance of the docket at the present time. There are only 12 cases on the docket for trial, including the Holly case.

Aside from the case in which Holly is charged with the murder of young Edward Cromwell, who lost his life in the Rock Springs Hotel fire in August, there is only one other case of very much importance, this being the one in which Mina Bessent, colored, is charged with infanticide and concealing the birth of a child. The trial of the Bessent case should not consume very much time, as the woman has already made a confession which virtually convicts her of the charge of concealing the birth of the child, it is stated. However, it has been said that this case will consume at least two days of the term as there will be a vigorous fight on both sides, especially in the case charging her with the murder of the infant. A true bill was returned at the last term of court by the grand jury.

While there are 12 cases on the docket there are only eight defendants to be given hearing at the term. All but the cases already mentioned and one other, a forgery charge, are appeals from the Recorder's court. The other cases are as follows:

Henrietta Hill, colored, forgery of a note for a pair of slippers, using the name of her former employer, Mr. R. E. Blake.

Jim Register, young white man, larceny of bicycles, three cases.

E. M. Roderick, a white man, selling whiskey in violation of prohibition law; tried before Substitute Recorder George Harriss, found guilty and sentenced to six months on roads.

Preston White, colored, non-support of his wife.

Richard Haywood, colored, assault with deadly weapon, being accused of shooting another negro by the name of Joe Stewart.

Moses Sessoms, negro youth, charged with the larceny of 70 cents from a cash drawer in a colored man's store, while he was left in charge of the establishment for a few minutes in the absence of the proprietor.

As will be noted the only case that will require any time, aside from the Holly case, is the one against Mina Bessent. If the Holly case is not taken up at this term, assuming, of course, that a true bill will be returned by the grand jury, the court should be through with the criminal side of the docket by Wednesday at least and probably earlier. The trial of the Holly case will probably take several days. It could be started, however, some time during the week and the hearing extended over into the following week if necessary. But whether the case will come up at this term cannot be foreshadowed. It is understood that the attorneys for the defendant will use their efforts to have the case continued, while the solicitor will very likely urge hearing at this term.

Judge H. W. Whedbee, of Greenville, will preside and Solicitor Rodolph Duffy, of Catherine Lake, will be here to look after the interests of the State. A two weeks' civil term of court will convene Monday, October 4th, which gives New Hanover three weeks of court hand running.

DR. MENDELSOHN AT HOME.

Arrived Yesterday With Mrs. Mendelsohn From Long Stay in Germany.

Dr. S. Mendelsohn, rabbi of the Hebrew Synagogue, and Mrs. Mendelsohn, who have been spending the Summer in Germany, arrived home yesterday from Baltimore, where they landed last Tuesday on the steamer Rhine from Hamburg. They were accompanied on the return trip by their son, Dr. Chas. J. Mendelsohn, professor in the City College of New York, who has been spending several months in the old country.

They spent 14 weeks in Germany and most of the time in Berlin. Dr. Mendelsohn stated yesterday that the trip was one of the most pleasant he had ever experienced. During July he attended the Liberal Christian and Free Religious Thoughts conference, which was in session in Berlin, and considers it one of the most profitable and interesting features of his trip. Their many friends are delighted to welcome them upon their return.

TO CONSTRUCT AEROPLANE

American Aeroplane Company Makes Contract With Mr. C. H. Dock. Machine to Cost About $5,000.

There was filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds yesterday an important contract between the American Aeroplane Company, which was organized in this city some months ago to construct machines according to the invention of Mr. David Palmgren, and Mr. C. H. Dock by which the party of the second part agrees to build the first machine, which will cost in the neighborhood of $5,000, it is estimated. Work will probably begin on the machine in a short time, if indeed, it has not already been begun.

The document filed for record yesterday sets out in detail the contract between the aeroplane company and Mr. Dock. The company agrees to hold in trust for Mr. Dock 4,000 shares of stock in the said company, which shares of stock were surrendered to the company by President F. A. Bissinger for value received. No more stock in the company is to be sold during the existence of the contract without the written consent of Mr. Dock. Access to all material, machinery, patterns, models, etc., intended for the aeroplane company is to be given to Mr. Dock, who agrees to pay all necessary expense for the application for patent rights of the said aeroplane in France, Germany, England, Canada, Italy and if deemed advisable in three additional foreign countries; to build, construct, erect and properly put together the said aeroplane according to the plans and drawings for which United States patent rights are applied for by Mr. David Palmgren, the inventor, and purchase, construct, supply and furnish all machinery, motors, material, labor and all other supplies necessary to properly complete the said aeroplane and to pay all expenses and wages incident thereto, up to and not exceeding $5,000. The work is to be done under the direction and supervision of Mr. Palmgren and when the machine is completed is to be turned over to the American Aeroplane Company as the absolute owner. The agreement terminates when the aeroplane has been accepted as ready for public flights. The contract is signed by Mr. F. A. Bissinger as president of the company and Mr. David Palmgren as secretary and by Mr. Dock.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Only a Few Cases Investigated at Yesterday Morning's Sitting.

There were only a few cases on the Recorder's court docket ready for trial yesterday morning. The case against Alderman J. B. Fales and Patrolman J. H. Davis, charged with an affray, was continued until today at the request of Mr. Fales, who had to be present at the renting of the market stalls for the coming year. Walter McNeal, colored, was given hearing on the charge of assault with deadly weapon in connection with a recent shooting affair, but he was found not guilty and discharged. The case against Buddie Lyon, colored, charged with assault on Son Darlington, colored, at Eighth and Nixon streets Sunday, was continued until today on account of the absence of Sis Baldwin, colored, a material witness. She was fined for failure to appear, but she later entered the court room and stated that the reason she was not present at the appointed time was on account of a sick child. The fine was remitted and the woman permitted to return to her sick one, and the case will be heard today.

O. Frink for $120; room over market to F. J. Bower for $72. The fish tables were rented to J. W. Smith for $240.

TUG BLANCHE COMES BACK.

Spent the Summer at Brunswick, Ga., For Extensive Repairs.

After receiving a thorough overhauling, including the installation of a new boiler, the tug Blanche, Capt. W. A. Sanders, arrived home this week from Brunswick, Ga., where she spent the Summer to receive repairs. The placing of a new boiler gives the tug more power and she will be engaged, as usual, in work on the river this Winter.

The many friends of Capt. Sanders, who was formerly master on the tug Alexander Jones, will be delighted to learn that he will make his home here this Winter. The tug Jones, Capt. Dosher, owned by the same concern, will remain at Jacksonville, Fla., where she has been engaged for several months in work on the St. John's river. The Blanche is the second Wilmington tug to receive repairs at Brunswick recently.

Unable to Tell of Shooting.

Mystery still surrounds the shooting of Walter Thornwell, colored, who was so seriously wounded Sunday night at Town Creek, in Brunswick county. Dr. Goodman still thinks there is little chance for recovery as the man has never regained consciousness The authorities are anxious to get an account of the shooting from the wounded man. In the meantime the two negro women are being held under bond and Sam Butler, who was arrested shortly after the affair and stoutly denies the crime, is being held in the Southport jail.

Painful Injury of Thigh.

Mr. B. B. Pridgen received a letter here yesterday informing him of quite a painful accident to Mr. S. F. Peterson, a prominent business man and lumberman of Kerr, N. C., on Saturday morning. Mr. Peterson was superintending some work at his saw mill and a pulley was thrown against one of his thighs with the result that it was badly crushed. It is likely that he will be confined to his room several weeks as the result of his injury.

Fire and Police Uniforms.

Chairman Wm. E. Springer yesterday issued an invitation for proposals for furnishing from 50 to 75 Winter uniforms for the police and fire departments, bids to be received until Tuesday, October 4th. Half yard samples of Charlottesville or Oak Mills 14 and 16 ounce blue cloth must be submitted with the proposals. The Commission will also receive bids for police and fire caps. Specifications and all other information may be secured by addressing or applying to the chairman.

THE SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

A HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL

Given Rev. Father Marion, of Asheville, on Eve of His Departure by Congregation of St. Thomas' Catholic Church.

For the purpose of presenting a fitting testimonial to the Rev. Father P. F. Marion, of Asheville, who superintended the construction of the magnificent new church, which is now complete as far as the structure itself is concerned, on the eve of his departure Thursday for his home, there was an enthusiastic and most representative meeting of the congregation of St. Thomas' Catholic Church in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, on Third street, last evening at 8 o'clock.

The recipient of the presentation was unaware that the demonstration was in his honor until the proceedings begun, hence it was all the more appreciated, although he felt quite compensated by the knowledge that he had given over to the church, and in fact, to the city, an ecclesiastical and civic building fit to grace even the first city in the country. The meeting opened by calling Mr. Timothy Donlan to preside, as he is the veteran survivor of the early congregation of the old church on Dock street. The object of the meeting was stated when the Rev. Pastor invoked the divine blessing on their deliberations.

Mrs. Watters next rendered with her wonted sweetness the solo "Ave Maria", and Mr. Martin O'Brien proposed an expressive resolution tendering to Father Marion the heartfelt thanks of the Catholic congregation for his untiring service for the past year in superintending the erection of the noble edifice of the new church, a church second only to the Church of St. Lawrence, Asheville, for the solidity of its composition, combined with the poetry of its artistic finish. All this was due in a large measure to the capability and zeal of Father Marion, who will be known long after he has passed away by his superior workmanship. Difficulties and impediments which are apt to arise in buildings out of the ordinary, such as the new church, were overcome by his master hand and fertile mind. Thanks to him, they can now feel that the beautiful rites of their religion will have a fitting sanctuary to find a home in at an early date.

Mr. Jas. J. Allen seconded the well merited and eulogistic resolution showing how they considered themselves honored by the successful completion of the worthy priest's labors. After all, he followed in the wake of the old church builders whose Catholic buildings dot the Christian world and even the American continent from Quebec to Mexico.

The Rev. C. Dennen then presented to Father Marion a very handsome purse in addition to the testimonial, with appropriate and well chosen remarks, showing how pastor and people valued the unremitting labors of Father Marion. Father Marion on rising to express his thanks was visibly affected at the surprise that they had kept in secret from him and the substantial token of their generosity. He had looked for no compensation but their unsolicited presentation, outside the fulfillment of a sacred task, touched him deeply, reflecting as it did their appreciation for his humble labors. They had indeed a noble "House of God" which should be a pride far outside even the Catholic ranks. Mrs. E. K. Bryan justified the former praise bestowed by all who have heard her charming voice in a rendition of the solo, "Tipperary in the Spring."

The following were the resolutions submitted and unanimously passed at the meeting:

"Recognizing the approaching time that will take Rev. Father Marion from us, and transfer him to another field of duty; and appreciating the great work he has done for this congregation, a work of love and sacrifice, be it

"Resolved: That the congregation of St. Thomas' here assembled, congratulate Rev. Father Marion on the successful issue of his labors. That we look with pride on the noble edifice erected by his care and genius to the Honor and Glory of God.

"Resolved: That we express our appreciation and indebtedness to the Rev. Father Marion, without whose zeal and personal sacrifices we could not realize success.

"Resolved: That we request the Rev. Father Marion to accept a token of our love and esteem; that our offering is not the measure of our gratitude, but rather the expression of our appreciation for him and his work.

"Resolved: That the Rev. Pastor be requested to sign these resolutions for, and in the name of the congregation, and that this action be inscribed in the Records of the church.

"Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be engrossed and presented to Rev. Father Marion, Our Friend and Benefactor."

After the meeting dainty refreshments were served and all joined in a vote of thanks to the committee which has planned so well and pleasantly as follows: Messrs. Martin O'Brien, Jas. J. Allen, Wm. Sheehan, Jr., William Powell, Dr. T. B. Carroll and Mrs. T. Pae, Mrs. L. V. Darby and Miss M. Price.

The following priests were in attendance: Rev. C. Dennen, Rev. F. Marion, Rev. W. B. Hannon, Rev. F. J. Gallagher and Rev. F. Dillon.

NEW LIGHTSHIP COMING.

Will be Stationed on Frying Pan Shoals About November 1st.

Authentic information has been received here from Charleston, headquarters of the Sixth Lighthouse District, that the "Knuckle" lightship, which was completed this Summer on the lakes for Frying Pan Shoals, will be brought down from New York next month and will be placed in position about the first of November.

The "Knuckle' lightship, a description of which was given in the Star some time ago, is modern in every detail and will be of great service to vessels coming down the coast. The lightship will likely come down under her own steam with one of the buoy tenders acting as convoy.

DOWN TOWN FIRE STATION

Board of Aud't and Finance Favors Purchase of Mills Property—Necessary That Something be Done at Once.

Having the unsafe condition of the fire station at Fourth and Princess streets and the need of immediate repairs brought to its attention by Chairman Wm. E. Springer, of the Police and Fire Commission, the Board of Audit and Finance in regular semi-monthly session last night discussed at length the question of establishing a down-town fire station in accordance with the recommendation of the special aldermanic committe which recently made an investigation and reported favorably upon the purchase of the Mills livery stables property, on Second, between Princess and Chestnut streets.

While the board could take no action, as the Aldermen have not sent over a recommendation or appropriation for new quarters, the members of that body being divided on the question, it was plain that the members of the Board of Audit and Finance favor the purchase of the Mills property for use of the firemen and the abolition of the Fourth and Princess street fire station. As previously stated, the Mills property can be purchased for $15,000 and with an expenditure of not exceeding $3,000 it is thought that the building on the lot can be converted into satisfactory firemen's quarters, making the total cost $18,000. The property at Fourth and Princess streets can be sold for at least $5,000. Deducting this from the $18,000 would bring the amount to be expended for the new station down to $13,000. On the other hand, it is pointed out, that to erect a new building at Fourth and Princess streets, including value of property, would cost not less than $25,000. Therefore, as purely a business proposition the members of the board were unanimously of the opinion that it would be advisable to purchase the Mills property and establish a down-town fire station. It was also pointed out that the establishment of a down-town fire station would probably have the effect of reducing the insurance rate in the business district.

It will be recalled that when the matter of a down-town fire station was first brought to the attention of the Aldermen a special committee was appointd to investigate and report on a desirable site. The committee, at a called meeting of the board, reported that an option had been obtained on the Mills property for $15,000 and that the building on the lot could be so altered for not exceeding $3,000, as to make it in every way suitable for the firemen. The committee was unanimously in favor of the Mills property. There was objection by some members of the board and the committee was continued to investigate and report on the MacMillan property across the street from the Mills property. At a subsequent meeting of the board the committee reported that the property could be bought for $200 a front foot; that 50 feet at least would be needed therefore the site alone, if the MacMillan property were purchased, would cost $10,000. The committee again recommended the purchase of the Mills property. Alderman Yopp, chairman of the building committee, and one or two members of the board, favored the erection of a new building at Fourth and Princess, stating that a new building would cost not exceeding $18,000. The matter was discussed at some length by the Aldermen, but they took no action.

The Police and Fire Commission at a recent meeting, realizing that the building at Fourth and Princess streets was not only unsafe but dangerous and wishing to be relieved of any responsibility for any accident that might occur there, appropriated $1,000 to be used in making repairs in the event arrangements were not made immediately for a down-town fire station. This was sent over to the Board of Audit and Finance for concurrence and came up at the last meeting. The members of the board thought it a waste of money to make any further repairs to the building and instructed the clerk to write communications to the Police and Fire Commission and the Board of Aldermen to the effect that arrangements should be made to erect a new building on the present site or secure a down-town fire station.

Chairman Springer, of the Police and Fire Commission, was before the Board of Audit and Finance last night, to impress upon the members the unsafe condition of the present building and the urgent need for repairs, and stated that his board would not be responsible for any accidents that might occur there on account of the dilapidated structure. Of course, the Police and Fire Commission, as previously stated, favors a down-town fire station and the purchase of the Mills property for such purpose, but if nothing is to be done toward providing safe quarters elsewhere the board desires that repairs be made on the Fourth and Princess street station.

This was the most important matter before the board last night. The meeting was presided over by Mr. M. G. Tiencken, acting chairman in the absence of Chairman Heyer, and in attendance were Messrs. McQueen and Wilder, members of the board; Capt. Thos. D. Meares, the clerk, and Mr. Springer. From a reading of the bills, etc., it was shown that of the special health appropriation of $5,000, only $884 has so far been paid out. There may be a few more bills to come in later, however, but the total is not expected to exceed $1,000. The remainder of the appropriation will go back to the general fund.

The action of the Board of Aldermen at its last meeting in suspending a State law was informally discussed. It will be recalled that there is a State law fixing the salary of the members of the Board of Aldermen at $100 a year and providing for a fine of $4 for each absentee unless excused by the board on account of sickness or absence from the city. It was brought to the attention of the Aldermen at the last meeting that nearly every Alderman had been absent from several meetings during the Summer. Then a motion was made to suspend the law, remitting the fines. The motion was adopted. No action was taken by the Board of Audit and Finance, the discussion leading to nothing definite.

Capt. Meares, the clerk, has just completed a statement of amounts audited for the several departments for the three months, from June 1st to August 31st, inclusive. COLORED MAN DEAD.

Daniel Yates, Turpentine Distiller, Died Sunday Afternoon.

Many white friends as well as the colored people of the city will regret to learn of the death of Daniel Yates, colored, a well known turpentine distiller, who died Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home, No. 412 South Eighth street, asthma being indirectly the cause of death. For many years he was a distiller at the plant of the late Wm. Boklen on Surry street and was also employed for a while at the Morton stills on Nutt street. Just before his last illness he was employed at Dock's stills across the river. He was a member of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion Church, from whence the funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. He leaves a wife, one son and three daughters, two of whom live in New York.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 20.—Guy Walker, alias H. H. Walker, alias Joseph Prism, is under arrest here and is being held for Jacksonville, Fla., authorities on the charge of grand larceny. Papers are being hurried to Virginia for the extradition of the man.

CONVINCING PROOF

OF THE VIRTUE OF

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

What is the use of procrastinating in the face of such evidence as the following letters represent? If you are a sick woman or know one who is, what sensible reason have you for not giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? For 30 years we have been publishing such testimonial letters as these—thousands of them—they are genuine and honest, too, every one of them.

Mrs. S. J. Barber says:

"I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women—and I feel it my duty to let others know the good it has done for me.

Three years ago I had a tumor which the doctor said would have to be removed by an operation or I could not live more than a year, or two, at most. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice, and took 14 bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today the tumor is gone and I am a perfectly well woman. I hope my testimonial will be of benefit to others." — Mrs. S. J. BARBER, Scott, N. Y.

Mrs. George May says:

"No one knows what I have suffered from female troubles, neuralgia pains, and backache. My doctor said he could not give me anything to cure it. Through the advice of a friend I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the pain soon disappeared. I continued its use and am now in perfect health. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a God-send to me as I believe I should have been in my grave if it had not been for Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." —Mrs. GEORGE MAY, 86 4th Ave., Paterson, N. J.

Mrs. E. F. Hayes says:

"I was under the doctor's treatment for a fibroid tumor. I suffered with pain, soreness, bloating, and could not walk or stand on my feet any length of time. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, followed her directions and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. To-day I am a well woman, the tumor was expelled and my whole system strengthened. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 1890 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Mrs. W. K. Housh says:

"I have been completely cured of a severe female trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and want to recommend it to all suffering women." —Mrs. W. K. HOUSH, 7 Eastview Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, etc.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

J. Boney, who was much interested in the exhibits and relics left there, and who stated that the last time he was in Wilmington, it was as a courier and that he was wearing the spurs of General W. H. C. Whiting, the General insisting upon his putting them on because of the dangers attending his errand.

The Wreath Committee for the ensuing month was appointed as follows: Mrs. L. L. Pritchard, Miss Margaret Price and Mrs. W. L. Smith.

PRINTS TELL OF CRIME.

Negro in Custody Believed to be Slayer of Hiller at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Police Captain M. P. Evans, chief of the bar of identification, announced late today that thumb and finger prints found on the window sash of the Hiller home corresponding exactly with those of Thomas Jennings, the negro under arrest charged with the murder of Clarence J. Hiller Monday.

The finger prints are the only direct evidence which the police now hold against Jennings, although he has been identified as an ex-convict and was found with a revolver near the Hiller home shortly after the murder occurred.

Large photographic reproductions of the prints found at the Hiller house and those taken from Jennings' hands at the bureau of identification will furnish an important part of the case which the police will make against Jennings in connection with the murder.

It Did Wonders

For That Tired Feeling

"I am getting along fine, and feel splendid, since taking Cardui," writes Mrs. Stella Halquist, of La Porte, Minn. "I used to have backache, headache, and that tired-out feeling. I had other troubles, too, and dragging sensations, but they have almost disappeared now. I cannot praise Cardui enough, for it has done wonders for me."

If you are weak and ailing, feel tired all the time, or experience any of the troubles to which women are peculiarly liable, you can rely on Cardui being of benefit. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the female constitution. No other medicine or tonic has exactly the same results as Cardui. No other has the record of 50 years of successful treatment, of cases of female weakness.

The principal ingredient of Cardui is imported direct from Europe, by us, and is of superior efficacy in the treatment of womanly ailments. Cardui is not like other medicines. It is different. It does the work.

Cardui has helped over a million women, and thousands have written letters full of enthusiastic praise for what Cardui has done for them.

It is certainly worth trying.

Why not test it for yourself? It will mean a great deal for you, if it cures you.

Theatrical

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby," a musical concoction founded on the cartoons of George McManus will be seen here at the Academy of Music tomorrow night and provides much fun. The book of the play is written by Aaron Hoffman and Paul West, the lyrics by Seymour Brown and the music by Nat Ayer and John W. Bratton.

James E. Rosen, the midget whom we have seen before as Buster Brown, is the bright particular star of the production, and his hit is inevitable from the first curtain to the last. His role is that of Napoleon Newlywed, the Baby of cartoon fame, and Rosen also plays the part of Major Knott Much, a Lilliputian who is substituted for the Newlywed youngster when the real baby is kidnapped by the head of an incubator exhibition, anxious to make his fortune by showing Napoleon.

Leo Hayes and Countess Olga von Hatzfeldt have the Mr. and Mrs. Newlywed parts, and make up to look very much like the McManus cartoon. Taken altogether, the offering is the best that was ever attempted in the matter of staging cartoons is the concensus of opinion of the New York press.

Seats for the big and jolly attraction went on sale this morning at Plummer's.

Big Comic Opera Star on the Way.

One of the greatest attractions booked for the season, and that is well on the way, being scheduled for appearance at the Academy week after next, is Jefferson DeAngelis. This big Metropolitan celebrity will come with an elaborate and brilliant production of the merry, glittering "Beauty Spot," and almost four score of folks will be seen in the presentation. This will be a regular New York production out-and-out. There will be the New York star, the New York company intact and the magnificent scenery. The event is being looked forward to as a very notable one theatrically.

Newlyweds at Rocky Mount.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 20—Special transportation will be operated between this city and Tarboro, and this city and Spring Hope and Bunn tonight to accommodate theatre-goers from these stations and intermediate points who desire to attend the "Newlyweds and Their Baby" at the Masonic opera house tonight. Persons from Spring Hope and Nashville, will arrive in the city by the regular afternoon train at 6 o'clock, this train connecting with a train from Bunn during the afternoon. There will be a special train returning to Spring Hope, leaving Rocky Mount about 11 o'clock tonight. At Spring Hope there will be a train for Bunn that will leave immediately upon the arrival of the special from Rocky Mount. There will be a special from Tarboro leaving Tarboro about 7 this evening and returning leave Rocky Mount about 11 o'clock.

The bill at the Bijou today will be featured by "What the Daisy Said," a Biograph subject, in which a time-honored superstition is verified. Young Lady Painfully Injured.

Miss Annie Gause, of No. 315 South Second street, is recovering from a painful accident suffered at the Front street market house a few days ago. She was at the market to make some purchases and while talking to the person in charge of one of the stalls a heavy pair of pliers, which had been left on the top of the door, some 10 or 12 feet above, fell and struck her on the head. Her hat broke the force of the blow, otherwise she might have been seriously injured. She became highly nervous from the effects of the shock, but friends hope that she will be fully recovered in a short time.

UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS.

Two Classes Elect Officers—Other Campus News and Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 20.—Among the recent class elections at the University were those of the law class and Freshman academic class. The lawyers have already shown their ability to wage "political wars" as the election was hotly contested. The following were eventually chosen: President, Wm. H. Becherdite, Winston-Salem; Vice President, C. C. Bellamy, Wilmington; Secretary and Treasurer, W. McK. McNairy, Greensboro; Representative on University Council, C. B. Ruffin, Tarboro; Judge of Moot Court, C. B. Spencer, Fairfield; Solicitor, C. A. Douglass, Raleigh.

The Freshmen succeeded in having a meeting at the union station late one night and elected Geo. Clark, Wilmington, president; Wiley Long, vice president, and Applewhite, manager class football team. There has been some speculation here regarding the freshman class' refusal to pledge themselves to abolish hazing at the University next year when they become sophomores. This was the understanding with which the present sophomores pledged themselves to abolish the evil this year and they are naturally much wrought up over the refusal of the freshmen to comply with the same agreement. It is thought that the freshmen at their next meeting will act in accordance with the understanding which will be a definite step in permanently abolishing hazing at the University.

The examinations for the Rhodes scholarships from this State will be held at Raleigh Oct. 25th and 26th. The judges will be Chief Justice Walter Clark, Hon. J. Y. Joyner and President Venable of the University, chairman of the committee. All candidates should send their names to Dr. Venable before Oct. 15th. Successful candidate will start October next year. The scholarship pays $1,500 a year and covers three years at Oxford. So far the University has had four representatives at Oxford on the scholarships.

JURY PROBES FOODSTUFFS.

Sale and Manufacture of Certain Articles May be Violation of Law.

Boston, Sept. 20.—A general investigation into the methods of manufacture and sale of all kinds of foodstuffs, with a view to determining whether the Sherman anti-trust law is being violated, may be inaugurated shortly by the Federal Department of Justice, according to advices received here by United States District Attorney French.

Mr. French stated today that he expected to hear from Attorney General Wickersham the decision of that official in the matter and intimated his belief the investigation would be ordered.

The Federal grand jury which has been hearing the evidence in the government prosecution of the alleged beef trust, and which was temporarily excused a week ago, met here again today, but was excused until tomorrow. District Attorney French stated that he wished to hear from the Attorney General as to whether the inquiry was to be made general before he proceeded further with the beef cases.

RECOVERY IN COTTON MARKET

Closed Steady at a Net Advance of Nine to Thirteen Points—Weather Advices Were Favorable—Steady Spot Offerings.

New York, Sept. 20.—The cotton market recovered most of yesterday's loss during today's trading on reports of a better spot demand, steadiness at Liverpool, covering by recent sellers and a moderate demand from trade interests.

The close was steady at a net advance of 9 to 13 points. The market opened steady at an advance of six points in response to relatively steady cables and private advices from Liverpool reporting steadier Southern offerings and a more or less general confidence that Manchester labor disputes would be adjusted before October 1st, the date settled upon for the lock-out. Early weather advices were favorable, but reports from the South tended to confirm the Liverpool advices of steady Southern spot offerings and after the opening there was considerable covering by shorts who were evidently disappointed that the increasing movement was not leading to a rapid decline in Southern spot values. After working up to a net advance of 8 to 12 points, offerings became a little heavier and slight reactions occurred from the best but the sales were very well taken and there appeared to be a quiet buying power in the market which many attributed to trade interests.

The close was at practically the best figures of the day. Southern spot markets officially reported early were 1-8c lower to 1-16c higher and local spot people with Eastern belt connections said that while the South was selling eagerly there was an improved demand both from domestic mills and exporters. The weekly report of the weather bureau read favorably except for complaints of low night temperatures in some sections of the Eastern belt, but attracted comparatively little attention, and while there was a report of boll weevil damage in Southeastern Arkansas there appeared nothing in the day's news to create any fresh view of the crop outlook.

Receipts at the ports today 63,059 bales against 38,657 last week and 55,842 last year. For the week 275,000 bales against 168,703 last week and 276,604 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,884 bales against 2,576 last year and at Houston 18,709 bales against 8,094 last year.

Spot closed dull, middling uplands 13.75; middling gulf 14.00. No sales. Futures opened steady and closed steady.

SHOWS THE LIMIT OF STOCKS

Price Movements Exhausted on the Market Yesterday—Early Advance in Response to Foreign Reports—Crop News Good.

New York, Sept. 20.—The narrow limitations of the present stock market were marked again today by the way in which price movements exhausted themselves before going far in either direction. The wholly professional participation in the trading serves to explain this restricted movement. The settlement of larger questions is awaited with determination by the large financial interests before attempting any important transactions in stocks.

The early advance was partly in response to the London market which took up the late recovery here where it left off yesterday and pushed it somewhat further. Buying for longer account was a factor in the strength shown at the outset here. The higher prices became in realizing sales and reaction set in. The decline began about the time the finance committee of the United States Steel Corporation was ready to go into session and that stock led the movement. The fall in prices was not continued to the end of the day and the net changes again proved small.

The crop news was good both in the immediate advices from the field and in the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau reviewing past conditions.

Reports of lessening demand for steel products, of increasing competition for orders and further coming reductions in the prices of leading lines were kept in circulation and helped to depress United States Steel, with sympathetic effect on the general list.

Conditions in the money market were without marked changes. An increase was reported in the supply of cotton bills offering in the exchange market and the demand for remittance is light.

There is an improvement in the bond market which is barely perceptible from day to day, but which becomes more discernible when comparing one week with another. The tone today was firm. Total sales par value $2,156,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 352,600 shares including: Sugar 300; C. & O. 3,700; L. & N. 600; N. & W. 300; Reading 66,800; Sloss-Sheffield 100; Southern Railway 600; do preferred 200; U. P. 41,300; U. S. Steel 119,700; V. C. C. 1,800

FACTORS ON COTTON MARKET.

Reaction in Liverpool Feature Yesterday—September Position.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Sept. 20.—The factors influencing the market today appeared in the reaction of the Liverpool market from the depression of yesterday's under the leadership of September position. For some time past it has been understood that a line of that delivery was owned for American account and that when it became impossible to ship for delivery from this side, a quick advance was to be expected. Under these influences our market closed tonight some 10 to 12 points higher, with Liverpool expected to be higher tomorrow. The in-sight movement for the week is estimated at 330,000 bales. Throughout the day the market was dull, but firm with a small outside demand, based on the expected squeeze in September abroad. HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

RACING BALLOONS LANDED.

One of Most Interesting Contests in History—The Winners Named.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 20.—The last of the balloons which started in the American championship and free for all races at the Indianapolis motor speedway last Saturday afternoon has landed and one of the most interesting balloon meets in history is ended.

The "Miss Sophia," William T. Assmann, of St. Louis, pilot, came down at 6:10 P. M. Sunday in the mountains of Calhoun county, W. Va., miles from any railroad or telegraph office and the landing was not reported until today. The other two balloons which were not reported until today are: "Buckeye," J. H. Wade, of Cleveland, pilot, which descended at Showalter, Va., at 7:30 A. M. Monday, and "New York," Clifford B. Harmon, of New York, pilot, which landed at Portsmouth Ohio, at 5 P. M. Sunday.

As both endurance and distance are taken into consideration in deciding the three winners of the championship event—the three to represent America in the international meet to be held in St. Louis October 17th next—the victors will not be known until the Aero Club of America passes on the reports of the pilots. It is probable, however, that "America II" leads with 44 hours and 27 minutes or almost three hours behind the American endurance record of 48 hours and 26 minutes. "Beckeye's" time is estimated at 37 hours and 38 minutes.

The third balloon to represent America probably will be "Miss Sophia," as its distance is estimated at more than that of any other entrant and its time of flight is approximately 25 hours and nine minutes. The nearest competitor for the honor is "Indiana II," Carl G. Fisher, Indianapolis, pilot, which landed near Indiana, Penn., after a flight lasting approximately 24 hours and five minutes.

Drifter was declared winner of the free for all event before the race began by A. B. Lambert, the official starter on the ground that the other three entrants were not ready to ascend on schedule time. "University City," Capt. John Berry, of St. Louis, pilot, which landed near McKeesport, Pa., at 3:30 A. M. Monday, however, shows a greater distance and more time in the air than the declared winner.

THE GRAND ARMY VETERANS.

Thousands Assembled at Atlantic City Spent Another Happy Day.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 20.—This was another happy day for thousands of veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic now in its 44th annual encampment here. Ideal September weather afforded old soldiers a fine opportunity to enjoy the ocean breezes, while participating in the innumerable reunions of the day.

The big crowd was greatly swelled today by arriving delegations, and indicated that the encampment will be one of the best the Civil War soldiers have held in a number of years. Tonight the visiting veterans were formally welcomed to the city at a monster meeting on the million dollar pier by Governor Fort and Mayor Sloy. Commander in Chief Samuel R. Vansant, of Minnesota, made the principal response.

The big event is the parade tomorrow, the annual review in which "the boys" delight to participate. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the big procession. Vice President James S. Sherman will review the veterans along with Commander in Chief Vansant. Another guest on the reviewing stand will be Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired.

Cammander John E. Gilman, of Boston, and John McElroy, of Washington, D. C., appear to be in the lead as candidates for commander-in-chief.

There is almost a unanimous protest against the railroads in general for their alleged failure to give the veterans a satisfactory rate from distant points. It was said today that if Rochester, N. Y., can guarantee better rates than given to Atlantic City, the former city may capture the next encampment. Otherwise it is said, the honor may go to the Central West.

Practically all the allied organizations of the G. A. R. held meetings today. There is a strong movement on foot at these meetings for increasing the pensions of veterans to $1 a day for life. At present Congress grants pension to Civil War veterans as low as $12 a month.

The National Association of Naval Veterans believes it has a solution of the matter of placing a statue of General Robert E. Lee in the capitol at Washington.

The association at its convention today adopted resolutions in which it did not oppose the placing of Lee's statue in the capitol provided it appeared in civil attire and as a citizen and not showing a Confederate uniform.

TROOPS HELD IN READINESS.

May Have to Quell Trouble Between Oyster Tongers on James.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 20.—Companies A, B and E, fourth regiment Virginia volunteers are being held in readiness here to proceed to Rescue, Virginia, tomorrow morning, where it is feared there may be serious trouble among oyster tongers in the James river.

Fisheries Commissioner MacDonald Lee with the three gunboats comprising the oyster navy are on the scene, but it is feared that the tongers, who believing they are battling for their rights, cannot be held in check by the boats.

Major C. M. Salomonsky is in command of the Norfolk troops. It is expected that they will start for the scene of trouble at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 20.—Commissioner of Fisheries W. McDonald Lee, aboard the Commodore Maury, the flagship of the oyster police navy, arrived at Hampton tonight after spending the day on the James river oyster grounds. The commissioner reports that all was quiet on the grounds today, and that the tongers have decided to peacefully await the re-survey of natural rocks which was commenced today by State Surveyor Ruediger. The survey will not be completed for at least two months. The supply of oysters is said to be better this season than it has been in 25 years. Planters were buying seed oysters at 15 cents a bushel today. More than 2,000 small boats were at work on the rocks. Commissioned Lee said the report that he had asked the governor to send militia to the scene was absurd, that no trouble was expected and that in the event of trouble his police boats could deal with the situation much more effectually than militia.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 20.—The soldiers were permitted to return to their homes late tonight with orders to report in time to leave Norfolk at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The officers stated that the services of the troops might not be needed, but that they would be ready to go in case the Governor thought the situation too serious to be handled by the oyster gunboats.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 20.—As the result of a conference held last night between Governor William Hodges Mann and Adjutant General William Wilson Sale, over the long distance telephone, orders were issued by the latter to Col. T. J. Nottingham, commander of the fourth regiment of infantry, to hold the second battalion of his regiment in readiness for active service. At midnight the battalion was transporting ammunition from Portsmouth to its armory in Norfolk, in order to augment its supply.

In view of the denial from State Fish Commissioner W. McDonald Lee that he had asked for troops, it is presumed that the Governor has based this action on information received from other sources.

The second battalion, fourth regiment, is composed of companies A, B and E, and is under command of Major B. W. Salomonsky.

Early this morning no order had been issued that any troops be actually moved.

ROBESON RADS.

Named Only Partial Ticket at Lumberton Convention Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., Sept. 20.—Pursuant to call, the Republican County Convention was held here today, every township in the county being represented but Alfordsville. The convention is said to have been the largest of any Republican meeting held in the county for several years. Only part of a ticket was nominated the remainder to be named at another meeting the first Monday in October. Ex-Sheriff J. W. Hall, of Lumber Bridge, was named for sheriff; Angus Shaw, of Maxton, for State Senator; V. H. Taylor, of Lumberton, for the House; A. H. Currie, Maxton; A. B. Mercer, Howellsville, and W. G. McLean, of Smith's, for county commissioners. There was much disappointment among the Republicans at the failure of Marion Butler to fill his appointment. Word was received that he had been left in Wilmington and all effort to charter a special train to bring him here were in vain. It is said, however, that Butler and Settle will both be here during the campaign. County Chairman Edmund, Dr. Norment, Angus Shaw, W. H. Kinlaw, J. W. Hall and V. H. Taylor entertained the convention for some time with speeches in the absence of the big gun.

GORE AT REIDSVILLE.

Replies to Vicious Radical Attack—Greensboro Last Night.

Reidsville, Sept. 20.—Senator Thomas P. Gore, the blind statesman of Oklahoma, addressed an enthusiastic audience of citizens from all parts of Rockingham and Caswell counties here today and made a telling speech for the cause of Democracy. He has completely answered the Greensboro News' reference to his Texas speech made in 1896 in a manner that has satisfied every one who heard him.

Twenty-five hundred copies of the News were circulated here today. Senator Gore decided to speak tonight from the veranda of the Guilford Hotel in Greensboro where he again paid special attention to the Republican paper's article. From Greensboro he goes to Salisbury where he speaks tomorrow. Wednesday night he speaks in Charlotte. Senator Gore is one of the first orators of the country and he makes a vote winning speech for Democracy.

FIGHT AMONG OYSTER MEN.

Trouble in Virginia Causes Governor to Order a Re-Survey.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 20.—Governor Mann has ordered a re-survey of the James river oyster banks to be made today to prevent a threatened shot gun battle between the planters and the tongers, who have moved their stakes.

The tongers have been pulling up stakes, charging that the planters have set them as to encroach upon public oyster ground. Fish Commissioner Lee is on the scene with the oyster police gunboats to enforce order.

MURDERED WHOLE FAMILY.

Horrible Crime in Pennsylvania Mining Town—Robbery.

Weschester, Pa., Sept. 20.—Mrs. John Zoos and her three children, a boy aged seven years and two girls aged seven months and three years, were murdered late this afternoon at Byers, a small town about 12 miles from this place. Suspicion points to a boarder who has disappeared, but who the police officials are making a desperate effort to locate.

The husband and father was the first to discover the horrible crime. While on his way home from the Plumbago mines, where he is employed, Zoos saw the body of his seven-year-old son lying in the bushes alongside the roadway. Upon investigation he found that the child had been terribly beaten about the head and was unconscious. The distracted father took the child in his arms and rushed to his home, a short distance away. Here a terrible sight met his gaze. Lying on the floor of the little kitchen were the bodies of his two little girls and his wife, the latter still breathing, but with her brains oozing from a great fracture of the skull.

The almost frantic father rushed from the house and gave the alarm. A physician was quickly summoned, but a glance told that there was no hope for the wife. Attention was then turned to the wounded boy. He was placed in an automobile and a quick run was ordered for the Phoenixville hospital, a distance of eight miles, but just as the automobile was in sight of the hospital, the little fellow breathed his last.

It was evident that the murderer had gone to the Zoos home for the purpose of robbery, and the fact that the three persons in the dwelling were disposed of by the brutal burglar would seem to bear out the theory of the police that the robber was familiar with the Zoos and murdered the family upon being recognized.

At the time the woman and the little girls were murdered the boy was at school. It is supposed he met the slayer of his two sisters and mother when a short distance from home and the murderer knowing that the child would recognize him and give a clue to the authorities, he placed the little fellow in such a condition that he could not be of any assistance to the police officials.

The weapon used by the murderer was an axe, the pole of which was covered with blood and brains from the mother and children.

The house had been ransacked and $45, which Zoos claims to have hidden in his home, is missing.

PITCHER JOHNS GOES BACK.

Prefers the Army to Professional Baseball Career—Gives Reasons.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept 20.—The regulations of the United States army are infinitely preferable to the man handling rules of organized baseball, in the opinion of Washington Johns, late pitcher for the Knoxville Southeastern League and Atlanta Southern League teams. Mr. Johns today boarded a fast train for the Columbus, Ohio, barracks to re-enter the army. It happened in this manner:

Last Spring Johns was a private in the 17th United States infantry at Fort McPherson with a four years record of good service and a reputation as a regimental twirler for baseball. The all seeing eye of the professional league baseball scout spied this record and the Atlanta baseball club bought the discharge of Private Johns from the army. Having thus duly become a baseball chattel Johns was promptly farmed out by Atlanta to Knoxville where, with soldier instinct he stuck till the last ball was fired and the campaign ended.

Today Pitcher Johns walked into the office of Lieutenant Sympington, in command of the local United States recruiting station, and said:

"Soldiering beats baseball playing. Won't you please take me back?"

"It's this way," Johns continued, "Uncle Sam's army takes better care of a man than he gets from a baseball team management, jumping around from town to town, sleeping on trains and eating at the mercy of hotels. When it comes to taking orders, give me an army officer instead of an umpire any time."

Lieutenant Sympington laughed, reached for the records and some blanks and in a short time Pitcher Johns was again a private.

WAYNE REPUBLICANS.

They Put Out a Ticket t be Defeated in November.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Sept. 20.—The Republicans of Wayne county held their county convention at the Court House this afternoon for the nomination of a legislative and county ticket, which resulted as follows: Senate, E. W. Hill, of this city; House, M. E. Cox, of Grantham township, and O. M. Davis, of Fremont; Sheriff, James O'Berry, of Dudley; Clerk of Court, Nathan A. Howell, of Stony Creek township; Register of Deeds, W. C. Hollowell, of Goldsboro township; Treasurer, W. B. Hood, of Grantham township; Coroner, Dr. W. P. Exum, Jr., of this city; Surveyor, N. P. Edgerton, of Buck Swamp township; Commissioners, Benj. Deans, of Buck Swamp; Walter Perkins, of Fork; J. E. Jinnett, of Brogden; G. O. Griffin, of Indian Springs; and H. D. Ham, of Stony Creek township. Goldsboro township endorsed W. A. Denmark, who was nominated by the Democrats, for tax collector. Other tax collectors will be named by the county executive committee, of which E. W. Hill was elected chairman. A resolution was introduced by W. G. Hollowell and unanimously passed favoring all county officers on a salary basis.

THE SPARTANBURG TRAGEDY.

Little Chance for Recovery of Mrs. Max Henrici—No Cause.

Spartanburg, S. C., Sept. 20.—Efforts of physicians today to locate the bullet with which Mrs. Max Henrici, wife of the city editor of the Spartanburg Herald, sought to end her life yesterday, proved futile and the statement was given out that there was little hope of her recovery. No cause has been assigned for the attempted self destruction. It was stated that the young woman had been subjected to temporary spells of insanity for several years.

Why the American National Bank Is Safe

Uncle Sam keeps a watchful but friendly eye on all National banks under his control. He requires each National bank to make a sworn statement of its condition four times a year, and to publish such reports in full in one of the local newspapers. He requires the board of directors to perform its duties and to have a knowledge of the manner in which the business is being conducted.

A Money Saver

is the very sifter you've always wished for—an enclosed cylinder sieve that sifts with the turn of the handle, so that ash-dust drops into barrel while the unburned coal rolls out into scuttle.

Saves Time, Work and Valuable Fuel

Fits snugly over top of ordinary barrel or galvanized iron ash-can, so that all ashes and dust are confined to barrel underneath.

No Dust Can Escape

Sifts a week's ashes in a few minutes—so easy a child can run it. Carefully and substantially made of galvanized iron—all joints riveted. Number 1 size is for ordinary household use. Shall we deliver one for you?
